THE TIMES.

FARMVILLE.

Dr. Milledge is giving a series of morning lectures at the Normal, which are instructive and inspiring. This gifted gentleman is an enthusiastic as well as accomplished scholar and has the happy faculty of communicating that enthusiasm to others, and nothing great in human history has ever been accomplished where the enthusiastic spirit has been wanting. That noble institution has never known a better session in its history and the students have never been more studious. As evidence of this I am told that all those who applied for graduation at the Feb. term were successful in winning the prize, and this notwithstanding the fact that the standard for graduation is being raised each session. Hereafter, however, there are to be no February graduates, their honors being all given at the close of each session in June. This strikes me as being a wise change

"Free murder" is a term employed by the Richmond News Leader, and it is said that the crime has been committed in Baltimore, Richmond and other cities, while the authorities of Farmville cannot to a like charge plead "not guilty." I heard a number of ladies discussing the matter the other day and they agreed that the destruction of our shade trees amounted to vandalism. I am quite sure that it would not be quite so comfortable for those officials who have taken part in this waste to meet with some of those aggrieved and outraged ladies, and yet I don't see how the collision can be avoided for any length of time. And they need'nt comfort themselves with the thought that the wrath I have mentioned is undergoing cooling process on the contrary they are "nursing it to keep it warm." This destruction began on Main Street and has spread to High St set and may take the town. I know of one lady who says she will appeal to the courts for protection rather than submit to the outrage in front of her door, and when she said it I saw the fire flashing from her eyes.

The principal actors in our post office controversy have been Mayor Blanton and Mr. B. M. Cox, who championed the cause of Mr. Sugg, the incumbent, who was originally appointed by reason of being a gold-bug Democrat, who voted for Mr. McKinley against Mr. Bryan. Mr. J. E. Harris, who has been carrying the colors of Mr. Garnett and Mr. George Richardson, who has been for self and against the field. Mr. Harris first entered the field in the interest of his son, but as he was not a resident of the town abandoned that fight and took up that of Mr. Garnett. He, Mr. Harris has the advantage of having been the most consistent, persistent and uncompromising G. O. P. man of them all. His zeal never knew abatement and his party energy a fair trial. What that is worth in Washington, in these Roosevelt days I just don't know. I believe, however, that he was a friend of Mr. Bagg in his fight of four years ago, when the bitterness between the Harris and Richardson factions rebirthed in the appointment of Mr. Bagg. It was the old story, "whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad."

It is interesting to listen to Dr. White as he drives up to his front gate and begins to call lustily for "William," his man of all work, and William always hears and responds.

Miss Maria Edmunds has opened a candy stand just across the street from the Normal, and it has already become the Mecca of those girls. Being in a room of a private home and immediately in touch of the school, I dont suppose the girls are even required to get permission to run over and spend their pennies. In addition to the best home-made candies, choicest of dainty refreshments are served and the venture promises to be a brilliant success. Mrs. Edmunds comes from a long line of gifted Virginia house keepers and has inherited her talents for serving the choicest dishes known to the culinary art. Since "Marse Bob" thought it best to surrender the daughters of our Southland have been winning splendid victories in every field of work they have entered. God bless them.

Mr. Baxter, the ticket agent and operator of the N. & W., is kept so busy that he has to take his dinner in his office, and when this is necessary the company has to pay him 35 cents for each meal. I saw him at dinner-a his desk the other day, and I am sure he enjoyed the meal, for it was prepared under the superintending care of Mrs. Dr. Platt, who learned the art of good house keeping in old Buckingham, and I somehow believe that he also enjoyed a glimpse at that extra 35 cents.

Dr. John Hamlet and Mr. Howard Crute now occupy the huntsmen's cottage close by the kennel, and are revelling in the delights and diversions of rustic life.

Drs John and Robert Hamlet, who for a number of years have occupied the same dental rooms are now in separate offices. Dr. John remains at the old stand while Dr. Robert is over the store of Mr. C. E. Cauppell.

Green Bay is still leading the rest of the county in a'fair pertaining to public schools and public roads. They have just held another enthusiastic meeting, at which spirited speeches were made by Hon. J. J. Owen, Judge Watkins and others. Mr. Owen will no doubt succeed himself as member of the next legislature and we could not send a better man there.

Prof. Bidgood, of the Normal Faculty, who has been detained at his home at the University of Virginia since Christmas by severe illness, has returned to his duties.

Mrs. T. A. Robertson entertained recently members of the faculty and many of the students of the Normal and to those who know of her manner of entertainment it needs not add that it was done with exquisite taste, graceful tact and in genuine and most approved Virginia style. During the lifetime of her noble husband it was my privilege to share the generous and graceful hospitality of their model home in company with Governo Montague, Judge Watkins and others and I recall the evening as one of the bright spots in my social experience. A shadow rested on that home and that heart when the husband died and it rests there still, but the woman who was worthy to be the wife of such a man has wisely and well determined that the best and truest tribute she can pay his memory is to make that home bright and attractive to others as it was his wont to do. Splendid example that.

Mrs. R. S. Paulette, who spendmost of the winter in Hampden Sidney, has been with Mrs. J. L. Richardson of late.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable

Most everybody who reads the news a is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing kidney, liver, bladder and every trouble of Bright's Disease, which nearly always results from kidney ills.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been extensively used in hospital practice, in the private practice of physicians who have kindly given us their professional endorsement, and in the writings of the most eminent writers on medical subjects, and has been found to be just the remedy needed in nearly every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoeg, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

"Don't bo le with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women It may be vital in the case of a child It results in grippe, pneumonia, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are not intolerable through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the danger of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become serious if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest remedy to child life at this season of the year is neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold of slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and influence of this preparation has been established by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given.

Hebron.

The kind words of your Gleefull correspondent, though unmerited by this humble scribe, have created in our hearts a desire to place before her as well the other readers a letter of more value and interest than ever before. But with mercury near zero, snow and ice on the ground we, of the rural districts are such shut ins that it is hard to collect items for a letter.

We must not, however, forget our New Year resolution of future punctuality, but go forward trusting we may win from the charitable the applaudit, "She hath done what she could."

The Times did not reach us yes terday, Thursday, as it usually does, which has greatly lessened the pleasure of our fire side. We are sure it is not the fault of the editor, whose strict business habits we have always admired, just a freak of the mail I suppose. Our faithful R. F. D. carrier is to be pitied as he plods his way day by day through the cold.

There still continues much sickness in our community. Dr. White's hood is kept very busy.

Capt. Watt Carson, who has had such a protracted spell is somewhat improved though not able to leave his room. He is a noble christian man, a pillar in his church and friend to humanity. His sister Miss Lizzie Scruggs has also been very ill at his home. They are blessed in having good nurses, his good wife and her sister, Miss Alice Stratton, whose mission in life would seem to be ministering to the afflicted, for they have literally given most of their lives to such work.

Lottie Annie Clare Taylor has been quite sick for a week.

Miss Lizzie Thornhill, who was so seriously ill with pneumonia has returned to her business in Lynchburg, accompanied by Mrs. Janie, her sister leaving only Miss Annie at home.

Mr. Vaughan Taylor paid a visit to his old home, "Silverwood" last week to say "good bye" before leaving for Lynchburg for Winter. N. C., where he has a fine position.

Miss Hattie Davidson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Sites to in Richmond

Capt. T. J. Stratton made a flying trip to your own Wednesday We think his useful life too valuable for such exposure.

Messrs. Jas. B Taylor and Will Carson have each had the misfortune to lose a fine horse very strangely affected. Such losses bear heavily on the farmers while horses are so high, farm products so low and labor so scarce. Many of our farmers have no help at all. The plea heard on the congress floor through this week's Times in speech for laborers in less cost seems very appropriate. Bread does do not yield an income with out hands to work them. The prices are of on looks dark but the perevering poor farmer renews his hope and goes forward each year with his wanted zeal as if his motto is "The Lord giueth."

If there is anything in the adage about the 2nd of February, governing the next six weeks I guess we are in for bad weather, for I am quite sure that hoghship saw his shadow.

There is lots of sickness in this community. Mr. J. R Booker has been critically ill with pneumonia, but is thought to be improving a this time.

Mrs. Ella Wells is much better now. It will be remembered by many of her friends what a long time she was ill, about four years ago with appendicitis. She was successfully treated by Drs. J. C. Munday and W. A. Thornhill. She seemed to have recovered entirely until about the first of January her complaint was pronounced by Dr. Watts to be torpid liver.
